NEXT MONTH: Political Secrets of The Nutcracker

Russian State Ballet, 2010

December 4, 2020
10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Presented by:
Jennifer Fisher, Ph.D.
Professor, Dance Studies
UCI, Claire Trevor School of the Arts

For the first time since the 1940s, annual performances of The Nutcracker are being canceled due to the global pandemic. Will it still be Christmas without the hundreds of local and national versions?

Find out about the political secrets of The Nutcracker—how a German Christmas came alive in San Francisco during World War II-- then how an immigrant Russian made The Nutcracker even more popular by staging it in New York during the Cold War.
